Common Phrasal Verbs List and examples (Level B1) - Aptis General

Verb + Preposition: e.g Look after: Will you look after my children, please?

Verb + Adverb: e.g Get back: She went back home at ten o'clock.

Verb + Adverb + Preposition: e.g Look forward to (+verb -ing): I'm looking forward to seeing my cousin next summer.

Phrasal Verbs

Componen una nueva unidad con un significado diferente al del verbo o preposición/adverbio por separado.

Algunos tienen varios significados (según el contexto).

Algunos phrasal verbs son separables (se puede añadir un CD entre el verbo y la preposición/adverbio).

Turn off the light = Turn the light off.

Otros Phrasal Verbs no se pueden separar.

I'm looking for my keys ≠ I'm looking my keys for

Agree with: estar de acuerdo

- I'm afraid I can't agree with you in this matter.

Answer back: replicar.

- Don't answer me back!

Back out: volverse atrás, romper un acuerdo.

- It's too late to back out now; I'm afraid we shall have to go through with it.

Back up: apoyar, respaldar

- If I protest against the decision, will you back me up?

Be after: querer, pretender

- What are you after? Just tell me plainly.

Be along: venir, llegar

- The doctor will be along any minute now.

Be back: regresar, volver

- I'll be back as soon as I can.

Be fed up: estar harto

- I'm fed up with this wet weather.

Be for: ser partidario de.

Go ahead: continuar, seguir (adelante)

- May I use your telephone? - Please go ahead.

- We have decided not to go ahead with the project, after all.

Go away: irse, salir de la ciudad

- Are you goig away for Christmas?

Go by: pasar, transcurrir

- As the months went by he got accostumed to the daily routine.

Go on: durar, continuar

- It looks as though this war will go on forever.

Go through: Sufrir, resistir

- No one knows what I went through while I was waiting for the verdict.45.

Go through: examinar, revisar, inspeccionar

- Let's go through the details of the plan once more.

Grow up: hacerse adulto, educar

- What are you going to do when you grow up?

Hang on: esperar

- Just hang on a second while I do up my dress.

Hold on: esperar

- If you hold on a moment, madam, I'll go and see if Mr Jones is free.

Keep off: no dejar acercarse

- Are you for or against the abolition of the death penalty?

Be in: estar en casa.

- I'd like to see Dr Bentley. Is he in?

Be over: terminarse, acabarse

- Well, it's all over now. You needn't worry about it any longer.

Be up to: depender de uno, incumbir a uno

- It's not up to me to decide on these matters.

Blow up: estallar (una bomba), hacer saltar, volar

- The bomb blew up killing five people.

Blow up: hinchar

- The child kept blowing up the balloon till it burst.

Blow up: echar una bronca a uno.

- The teacher blew me up for arriving late this morning.

Break down: estropearse, averiarse

- These machines will break down if they are left without maintenance

Break in: entrar rompiendo la puerta...

- The thieves broke in and stole the paintings.

Break up: separarse (una pareja).

- Peter and Lily broke up nearly a year ago.

Bring back: devolver.

- I'll lend you my car provided you bring it back tomorrow.

Bring on: causar, ocasionar.

- Such cold and extremely damp weather often brings on influenza.

Bring up: educar.

- She brought up her children to be truthful.

Carry on: seguir, continuar

- Sorry if I interrupted you. Please, carry on.

Carry out: cumplir (una promesa), llevar a cabo

- They didn't carry out their promise to help us.

Clear up: aclarar

- I'd like to clear up this matter once and for all.

- "Keep off the grass" (sign displayed in public parks).

Keep on: seguir, insistir en

- Why do you have to keep on bothering me?

Keep out: No permitir entrar, pasar

- "Private. Keep out" (notice on the door).

Let down: fallar a uno

- I'll do everything I can to help you. I won't let you down.

Let in: dejar entrar, hacer pasar

- She opened the door and let the cat in.

Look after: cuidar de

- The nurse looks after the children when we go away.

Look for: buscar

- what do you look for in a woman?

Look forward to: estar deseando (con gerundio -ing)

- We are looking forward to going back to Spain.

Look out: (imperative) ten cuidado, ojo

- Look out! You nearly ran over that child.

Make up: maquillarse

- It takes my wife ages to make up her face.

Make up: inventarse

- I'm not very good at making up excuses, I'm afraid.

Make up (con "mind"): decidirse

- My mind is made up. I am not going on that trip.

Mix up: confundir

- He mixed up the addresses so that no one got the right letter.

Pick up: recoger algo

- She scatters newspapers all over the floor and I have to pick them up.

Pick up: recoger a alguien (con el coche)

- I'll pick you up at six.

Point out: indicar, mostrar

- The guide pointed out the most important buildings in the city.

Put away: poner algo en su sitio

- Don't leave your things about, put them away.

Do with: tener que ver con, tener relación con

- She's very interested in anything to do with Roman art.

Do without: pasarse sin, prescindir de

- Children can't do without the help of their parents

Find out: averiguar

- In the end I found out what was wrong with my radio.

Fix up: fijar, arreglar, organizar (una fecha...)

- The club has already fixed up several matches for next season

Get along = Get on: llevarse bien con uno

- It's very easy to get along with the new boss. He's very nice.

Get away: escaparse, evadirse

- The cashier got away with all the money in the safe.

Get away with: quedarse sin castigo

- Some people can get away with murder.

Get off: apearse, bajar (de un autobus...)

- You get off at the next station.

Get on: subir (a un autobus...) / hacer progresos

- How is he getting on at school?

Get rid of: desacerse de (algo), quitar

- I must get rid of those old magazines. They are useless.

Get through: comunicarse por teléfono

- I coudn't get through (to him). The line was engaged all the time.

Get up: levantarse, ponerse en pie

- What time did you get up this morning?

Give away: regalar

- My aunt has given her old clothes away (to the poor).

Give back: devolver

- Having finished reading the book I gave it back to the library.

Give out: repartir

- The teacher gave out the exam papers to the students.

Give up: dejar de (fumar, beber...), ceder, rendirse

- I tried to give up smoking, but without success.

Put on: ponerse la ropa Take off: quitarse la ropa

- Take off that dirty shirt and put on a clean one.

Put up: alojar

- Could you put me up while my house is being repaired?

Put up with...: soportar

- I can't put up with your brother: He's so annoying!

Run out of ...: Quedarse sin... acabarse

- I run out of milk to make the cake.

Turn on: encender la luz Turn off: apagar (= put on /put off)

- She put on the radio to listen to the news.

Turn up: subir el volumen Turn down: bajar el volumen

- Don't forget to turn down the gas when the water boils.

Talk over: discutir, comentar con alguien.

- Talk it over with your wife and give me your answer tomorrow.

Think over: considerar, reflexionar sobre

- Please, think this matter over and let me know your answer soon.

Throw away: tirar, desechar

- We should throw away this table and buy a new one.

Try on: probarse una prenda de ropa.

- I like this dress, could I try it on?

Try out: comprobar

- We won't know how the plan works till we have tried it out.

Turn into: convertir

- I am going to turn my garage into a playroom for the children.

Turn out: resultar ser

- He turned out to be a thoroughly dishonest person.

Turn over: volcar (vehículos), darse la vuelta (personas).

- The car struck the wall and turned over.

- When his alarm went off he just turned over and went to sleep again.

Turn up: llegar, asistir

· I waited for him for nearly one hour but he didn't turn up.